

FINED FOR TRYING TO BREAK IN FOR DIVORCE EVIDENCE

Lawyer and Companion Make Sensational Attempt to Catch Mrs. Ewald.

Another sensational chapter was added early to-day to the domestic troubles of George Francis Ewald and his wife, Bettie Schwartz Ewald, when two men tried to get into the home of Edwin R. Ewald, of No. 116 West Eighty-fourth street, in an effort to get evidence against Mrs. Ewald, whose baby daughter, Lucy, was found a short time ago in Paris as the adopted daughter of Mrs. Nella Mann.

The two men who rang the bell at Ewald's home, on the ground floor of the house, later described themselves as Andrew F. McNamara, a lawyer, of No. 20 Broadway and living at No. 25 East Thirty-fifth street, and James Lyons, a real estate operator, of No. 25 Grove street.

According to Russell, his bell rang shortly after 3 o'clock this morning and when he went to the door he found McNamara, Lyons and a third man. Russell was in his night shirt. The men, he said, asked if Mrs. Ewald was in. Mrs. Ewald rooms with Russell and Mrs. Russell and Russell said he told the men he didn't know whether she was in, but he would go and see.

Then, Russell alleged, McNamara asked him and the other two men tried to push past him. McNamara, he said, and the noise of the struggle aroused her. She tried to prevent the men forcing their way through the apartment also, but was thrust aside. Russell, with his night shirt badly torn, rushed to a window and shouted for the police.

Policemen Cullen and Newhall heard him and ran to the house with drawn revolvers.

Russell was indignant because of the possible effect the excitement may have on his sick wife.

He insisted on preferring a charge of assault against McNamara and Lyons and they were locked up in the West Sixty-eighth street station, but later Dr. Louis Ewald of No. 2 East Sixty-seventh street appeared and gave bail for them. They were released to appear in the West Side Court.

When McNamara and James Gaffney, who had given the name of Lyons—the third of the trio of raiders and the one who escaped—were arraigned before Magistrate Kermochan both admitted that they had forced their way past Russell and both swore that they found Mrs. Ewald in her room. A man was under her couch, they said. Russell in testifying denied that Mrs. Ewald was in the house at the time the raid was made. Ewald said that the success of his suit for divorce was now assured. McNamara and Gaffney were each fined $10, which Ewald paid.

In March of this year Mrs. Ewald had George Francis Ewald in the Domestic Relations Court on a charge of non-support.

MOTHER'S FIGHT TO GET BACK THE BABY.

The case was later dismissed. The Ewalds were married five years ago in Jersey City, and according to the wife Ewald left her some months later. A baby was born to Mrs. Ewald Aug. 4, 1908, and she said she had to go to work after leaving the hospital. She learned that Mrs. Kline of No. 25 East Sixty-seventh street wanted a baby and took a month for the child's board. Later, when she tried to get the baby back, she could not find it, she said.

The World then took up the case and on April 5 last found the missing Lucy with Mrs. Nella Mann, wife of William H. Mann, No. 25 West Thirty-ninth street, in the home of Mrs. Mann's mother, at No. 5 Rue d'Alger, Paris.

The child's name has been changed to Helen Mann. Mrs. Mann said she loved the child devotedly and would never give her up.

Mrs. Ewald has since tried to get back her baby, but failed. She attempted to get a warrant in the West Side Court for Mrs. Mann and it being denied her, appealed to the State Department. Nothing since has been done.

SCUTARI GIVEN UP BY MONTENEGRO; EVACUATE AT ONCE

King Nicholas Agrees to Terms of Powers and European War Skies Clear.

LONDON, May 5.—Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Minister, announced at to-day's meeting of the ambassadors that Montenegro had unconditionally placed the question of the future of Scutari in the hands of the European Powers. The decision reached by King Nicholas at the very last moment had the effect of immediately relieving the great tension in European politics and caused unbounded satisfaction to diplomats and the general public.

The Stock Exchange at once responded to this feeling, and it was generally hoped that this action of Montenegro would do away with all necessity for military incursions into Albania such as Austria and Italy were contemplating against Kessad Pasha, the former Turkish commander of Scutari, Djavid Pasha with his refugee Turkish troops and other independent leaders.
